ADVENTURE BOUND

- Week of January 25
  Look for a welcome email from your student guides with information about the program, a link to your group’s GroupMe, and scheduling information.

- Week of February 1
  Get to know your group members through short Flipgrid video introductions. Don’t forget to submit yours!

- Week of February 7
  Meet with your group virtually over WebEx for your first meeting and outdoor adventure trip orientation.

- February 13 or 14
  Embark on your first in-person socially distant outdoor adventure of your choice with your preference for either Saturday or Sunday. Activities include a hike in Rock Creek Park, biking along the C&O Canal, a night monument walk, or a hike along the Potomac.

- Week of February 21
  Based on your availability & class schedule meet with your small group (in-person or virtual) for the first time to talk about all things college transition related.

- March 6 or 7
  Join your whole group again for your second in-person outdoor adventure on Saturday or Sunday.

- Week of March 7
  Second small group meeting (in-person or virtual) to chat about identity, community, and racism in the outdoors and at GW.

- Week of March 21
  Enjoy your last small group meeting (in-person or virtual) and talk about your goals for your time at GW.

- March 27 or 28
  Close out the program with an in-person socially distant campfire or group walk, based on your group’s availability.

This is a sample itinerary, changes may occur with program updates. COVID-19 guidelines will apply to all in-person programs.
