GW ADVENTURE BOUND
DC EXPLORATION AND SERVICE

DAY ONE (Friday, August 19th)
- ALL DAY: Move into your residence hall (home sweet home!)
- EVENING: Meet your student guides for the trip, staff or faculty learning partner, and all the other first-year students attending the trip.

DAY TWO (Saturday, August 20th)
- MORNING: Meet up with the group for a stroll through Foggy Bottom and the surrounding neighborhoods to learn about the community and get oriented in the city!
- AFTERNOON: Walk to our kayak tour where you can traverse the Potomac River, take in the summer sun, and see the city from the water!
- EVENING: Regroup on campus for dinner and a small group session.

DAY THREE (Sunday, August 21st)
- MORNING: Walk to DuPont to explore the Farmers Market and surrounding neighborhood.
- AFTERNOON: Travel to Crystal City to explore an underground indoor rock climbing paradise and learn to climb!
- EVENING: Dinner in one of GW’s green spaces back at campus, small groups, and of course campfire & S’MORES!

DAY FOUR (Monday, August 22nd)
- MORNING: Wake up and travel to DC’s Rock Creek Park to perform maintenance and restoration as a team.
- AFTERNOON: Unwind after trail maintenance to explore the trails that you cleaned and admire the beauty of DC’s natural spaces.
- EVENING: Enjoy a picnic dinner on the mall, toss a frisbee and play spike ball, watch the sunset over the monuments and end the night with small groups!

DAY FIVE (Tuesday, August 23rd)
- MORNING: Meet up with the group for a local hike on the Potomac Heritage Trail.
- AFTERNOON: Enjoy a final lunch all together on campus!

This is a sample itinerary. Small changes may occur with program updates. Participants will receive an updated itinerary closer to departure dates.
